

WORKSHOP on Behavioral Finance and Economics Central European University – ESSEC Thursday, June 6th, 2019

8:30 Welcome and Registration

Morning session - Chair Andras Fulop (ESSEC)

9:00-9:50 KEYNOTE TALK 1
Christian Gollier (Toulouse School of Economics) - "Recursive Asset Pricing with Non-Recursive Preferences"

9:50-10:20 Coffee Break

10:20-12:05 INVITED SESSION 1
Paul Schneider (USI Lugano) - "Does it Pay to be an Optimist?"
Marianne Andries (Toulouse School of Economics) - "Ambiguous Trade-offs, an Application to Climate Change" (joint with Nina Boyarchenko - NY Fed)
Guillaume Rousselet (McGill) - "Identifying Beliefs from Asset Prices" (joint with Anisha Ghosh)

12:05-13:20 Lunch Break

Afternoon session - Chair Roméo Tédongap (ESSEC)

13:20-14:10 KEYNOTE TALK 2
Botond Koszegi (CEU) - "An Attention-Based Theory of Mental Accounting" (joint with Filip Matejka)

14:10-14:40 Coffee Break

14:40-16:25 INVITED SESSION 2
Pedro Bordalo (Oxford, Said Business School) - "Attention, Memory and Choice"
Augustin Landier (HEC Paris) - "New Experimental Evidence on Expectations Formation"
Adam Zawadowski (CEU) - "The Tragedy of Complexity" (joint with Martin Oehmke - LSE)

18:00 Dinner at "Babel Budapest" restaurant

Location: Central European University
1051 Budapest
Nador St. 15
Room N15 101 (Quantum Room)
Hungary